Kentucky boasts a wide array of talented artisans and Kentucky Crafted: The Market 2004 is the ideal venue for appreciators and collectors to find their favorite crafts, art, books, music, and food - all in one exclusive showcase. The artisans and businesses promoting their artwork and products at this award-winning event are among the best the state has to offer, and reflect the state's unique traditions alongside many contemporary and original works.

The craft industry in Kentucky contributes $252 million in annual sales and Kentucky is recognized as a model state for its craft programs and its role in the $14 billion national craft industry. The Market is a collaborative effort among several state agencies and cabinets, which promote Kentucky's rich cultural heritage while supporting the state's economy.

Kentucky Crafted: The Market is the nation's first, and remains one of the very few, state-sponsored events of this type. For the ninth year, The Market is recognized as one of the Southeast Tourism Society's Top Twenty Events.

I would encourage folks to come to Kentucky Crafted: The Market and enjoy the fine crafts offered by Kentucky artisans from across our great Commonwealth.

Sincerely,
Ernie Fletcher

Special Events and Activities

KENTUCKY CULTURAL STAGE

Bluegrass, Celtic, blues, international...whatever your musical tastes, get ready for a great line-up at this year's Cultural Stage at Kentucky Crafted: The Market. The Cultural Stage features artists from the Kentucky Arts Council's 2004-2005 Performing Arts Directory, some of which are endorsed by the Kentucky Folklife Program. Performances will take place all day Saturday and Sunday, February 28 and 29. All these performers and many more have CDs and cassettes for sale at The Marketplace, the Kentucky Arts Council's Booth H, next to the Cultural Stage.

FOR MORE INFORMATION on the Performing Arts Directory, please contact Heather Lyons, toll-free at 888-833-2787, ext. 4827, or email heather.lyons@ky.gov.

Schedule of Performances

John Gage, Emcee

The Market is proud to present Louisville's own John Gage, host of Homefront— one of Kentucky's finest live-performance radio shows.

Saturday, February 28

10:00 am – Food Demonstration

Kentucky Department of Agriculture, Kentucky Proud, food exhibitors will cook up tasty samplings of some of the state's finest food products.

11:00 am – Governor's School for the Arts

Governor's School for the Arts (GSA) provides hands-on arts opportunities for the state's talented high school students who are dancers, actors, instrumental and vocal musicians, creative writers, future architects and visual artists. GSA's primary components include a three-week summer residential program and regional arts workshops. GSA is represented in performance by alum, Ochion Jewell.

12:00 pm Lorinda Jones

Multi-instrumentalist Lorinda Jones delivers outstanding performances that foster an appreciation for the Celtic and American music she plays. A certified Music Therapist, Lorinda actively performs with Just by Chance and the Heartland Dulcimer Club, while serving as Director of the Harps for Life ensemble.

1:00 pm Orville Hammond

Alone or with his group, Orville Hammond is a Kentucky artist who has gained national and international recognition. His jazz compositions have premiered all over Europe, the Caribbean, and New York's Carnegie Hall.

2:00 pm – Raison D'Etre

Whether singing an a capella swing tune or supporting their rich vocals with keyboard, acoustic guitars and various percussion and folk instruments, Raison D'Etre know their "reason for being": to sing together.

3:00 pm – Greg Schaber

An award-winning blues singer and guitarist, Schaber performs solo renditions of classic and original blues on a variety of vintage instruments - the harp guitar, guitar-banjo and National steel guitar. His music ranges from acoustic-based regional styles of the early 20th century to the electrified urban styles that followed.

4:00 pm Arthur Hatfield and Buck Creek

This bluegrass band is well known in Kentucky and beyond for their tight vocal harmonies and instrumental skills. Bluegrass music lovers have enjoyed Arthur Hatfield and Buck Creek's stirring performances for years.

Sunday, February 29

10:00 am Fernando Moya and John Gage

Originally from Ecuador, Fernando Moya is a seasoned performer of music from the Andes Mountains. His instrument making skills are well known, along with his compelling and educational performances. His partnering with John Gage, a veteran performer of the past 30 years as a premier folk singer, songwriter and guitarist promises to be a rewarding performance that brings people and communities together through good music.

11:00 am – Octavia Sexton

Through a lively and compelling performance, Octavia Sexton tells stories that have been shared through generations of her family. Her repertoire of traditional narratives include folk tales, ghost stories, Jack tales, and Cherokee legends, all of which inspire appreciation of Kentucky heritage.

12:00 pm 10th Street Blues Revue

This Louisville-based group performs sometimes as a duo, sometimes as a full band, playing a hard-charging style of classic blues from the 1930's, 40's, and 50's. Fred Murphy began the 10th Street Blues Revue, and performed with them until his death in November 2003. The group continues playing music influenced by the early Memphis blues scene in which Fred grew up.

Special Events and Activities continued

Sunday, February 29

1:00 pm
Cari Norris and Jim McGee

Cari's music perpetuates the traditions of her grandmother, Lily May Ledford of the Coon Creek Girls. Cari plays ancient ballads and original songs on a variety of stringed instruments, often with Jim McGee as a duo, or in a trio.

2:00 pm
The Hays Brothers

This Warren County bluegrass group has a special "family harmony" that comes from years of singing and playing together. Audiences everywhere are certain to love hearing their repertoire of bluegrass and older country music.

3:00 pm
Heidi Howe

The original music of Heidi Howe has been praised all over the country. With a mix of old-time country and bluegrass styles, Heidi has supported social and environmental concerns through a number of music tours.

4:00 pm
Soulgrass

Blending bluegrass, R&B, and rock, the band Soulgrass creates a unique sound that introduces bluegrass music to a more diverse audience. Their excellent vocal harmonies and instrumental virtuosity make their performances innovative and unforgettable.

Product Showcase

BOOTH C

Located inside South Wing near the main entrance, the Product Showcase, "The Nature of Kentucky", is an exhibit featuring garden-related products made by Market exhibitors. Staff will be available to provide information about where to find quality Kentucky products at "Kentucky Collection" stores or by visiting the Program's on-line Buyer's Guide at www.kycraft.ky.gov.

Demonstration Stage

BOOTH D

For generations, the basketmaking traditions of South Central Kentucky have remained a source of regional pride and sustainability for many area families. Join the Kentucky Folklife Program in the Demonstration Area as they present some of the very best artists working in this community-based craft today. Several members of the newly formed Mammoth Cave Basketmakers Guild will demonstrate their construction techniques using regional materials and locally-learned skills.

Hands-on Children's Educational Activities

Saturday, February 28, 10:00am–5:00pm

Sunday, February 29, 10:00–4:00pm

BOOTH E

Young visitors can experience the excitement of the hands-on educational art and craft area, and work with professional artists. The Kentucky Museum of Arts + Design will conduct a fiber workshop. The Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing will share crafts and sign language. The Kentucky Historical Society will be celebrating Women's History Month by creating paper quilt squares. The Little Loomhouse joins The Market this year and continues to share the life's work of Lou Tate in teaching the joys of hand weaving to all ages.
